Description

A very unusual pair of 19th Century pumpkin shaped silver pepperettes. The lids are beautifully pierced and decorated with tendrils and round finials. The bulbous bodies are generously shaped to resemble pumpkins and the bases that they stand on follow the same lines. The condition of the pepperettes is very good, both are hall marked London 1842. A delightful pair of English silver pepperettes to grace any dining table or add to a silver collection. Date 1842 Height: 3" (7.25cm) Width: 2.25" (6cm)
