Description

A smaller than average double pine wardrobe that dates from around c.1910. It is in very good order throughout having recently been stripped of its original paint. It is now in the bare wood ready for waxing or painting. May have originally been used as a linen cupboard. There are two columns, one at the side of each door and a full width bottom drawer. The panelled doors have nice detail and the drawer has the original wooden knobs. This is a one piece wardrobe so please check access for delivery. A new brass hanging rail will be fitted, and is included in the price. It would also make a useful hallway tidy, storing away coats, bags etc, or as a linen cupboard - shelves can be fitted instead of a rail, please let us know of your requirements. Height 72.5", width 45", depth 22.5", internal depth 17"
