Description

A beautiful Victorian mahogany chest of drawers dating from the mid 19th Century. Excellent quality and very well made from solid mahogany with hand cut dovetail joints. The drawers all open well and it a clean sturdy set with all the original turned knobs. The bracket feet have been put on recently as a replacement for the old feet that likely got damaged or worn away. The bracket feet are in keeping with the chest and it is a nicely balanced piece. It is in good condition for its age and displays beautifully. It has never been french polished so isn't extremely shiny. Instead it has been lightly waxed and polished and has a wonderful rich patina. The drawers are generally clean and tidy with a few small old stains but nothing detrimental. A piece of moulding on the bottom side has been partly replaced and repaired (see photo) and there are the usual small signs of wear and a few marks and small knocks but nothing detrimental or untoward. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions please ask.
