Description

A fine quality inlaid mahogany pedestal desk by the renowned cabinet makers Edwards and Roberts of London. Of excellent construction in solid mahogany with attractive mahogany veneers. The desk is decorated throughout with inlaid satinwood stringing and banding. The break-fronted rectangular top is fitted with a sumptuous black leather writing surface, decorated with gilt tooling. There is an arrangement of one long central drawer flanked by two sets of 4 shorter graduated drawers. All drawers are fitted with their original brass swan-neck handles. The pedestals are of stylish, tapering form and they stand on elegant splayed legs. This desk is finished to the reverse so could be free-standing within a room if desired. We have had it sympathetically repolished to a very high standard.
