Description

For your consideration is this wonderfully stylish and rare modernist clock. Dating to the 1930's Art Deco period this clock is made from chrome and on an Onyx base with phosphorescent hands and dial. Recently serviced by our horologist this clock works well and keeps good time. Marked to the base 'made in England'. Condition is very good and as expected from a vintage piece with some chrome corrosion to the back of the clock and some very mild pitting in small areas to the bezel. Dial has some minor wear.
