Description

If you love glam as i do then this is the piece for you. This a 1930's Art Deco French mirror clock made by Bayard the French clock makers. The front is complete peach colored mirror with bevelled edges and etched design. It's free standing on an easel backing and can be adjusted to varying angles from upright to sloping. Made by the French clock makers Bayard and in exceptional condition with just one scratch to the mirror at the top about 2 cm in length, not noticeable unless you go searching but mentioned for accuracy - I've added a close up to show this. As with all our clocks this one has been fully serviced and comes to you in good working order. Ideal for a dressing table or bedroom setting. In exceptional condition with just one small scratch to the mirror at the top about 2 cm in length, not noticeable unless you go searching but mentioned for accuracy - I've added a close up to show this.
