Description

A Pair of 18th Century Carved Solid Mahogany Pedestals. These have been made from old columns, they are large, hefty pieces made in mahogany. The bases and the table tops are a 19th Century modification. The columns have elaborate acanthus leaf carvings top and bottom with a deep reeded section between. They are very sturdy and have each been made to hold a heavy object. The Columns are decorated in the Classical style. The Columns are strong and sound and have a multitude of uses. The columns are 45" tall, the plinths are 15" square. KW224.
