Description

This exceptional quality piece is in burl walnut with silver plated handles and beveled mirrors, in very good and original condition. 1860mm high, 1090mm wide and 610mm deep. Circa 1930. Maurice Adams saw himself as the natural successor to the great furniture makers of the eighteenth century and had ambitious plans for 20th-century British interior design, including a proposed 'Maurice Adams house', in which the architecture and interior furnishings would be designed entirely by Adams throughout, in a streamlined, Georgian style. All Adams's furniture was made by hand in Gloucester and displayed in Adams's showroom in Portman Square, London.
