Description

This is an antique table from the late 19th century. Scottish oak with carved decoration. Raised on barley twist legs, this side table dates to circa 1880. A handsome side table displaying good colour and grain interest. The top displays well with wisps of medullary rays. Wax polished finish with a desirable aged patina. Frieze drawer dressed with turned pull. The apron decorated with notch carved detail. The corners showing stylised rosettes. Pierced scrolled brackets softening the unions. Raised on quality, barley twist legs. United by a barley twist 'H' stretcher. Standing upon ball feet. An attractive antique side table presented with solid joints and construction. Delivered waxed, polished and ready for the home.
