Description

An extremely good quality English George III figured mahogany bracket or table clock with inverted bell shaped top, brass fish scale side sound frets and decorative pierced spandrels to the door stood on brass ball feet finished with brass cone shaped finials and carrying handle to the top. The clock has a beautifully engraved silvered dial with Arabic minutes and Roman numeral hours and features a date calendar and silent strike dial. The dial has the makers name:- Thomas Aldrige Deal At some point the movement has been converted from verge to the more reliable time keeping anchor escapement. The back plate is finely engraved with scrolling leaf and bird design. The movement is a five pillar, twin fusee, eight day running clock, with silent strike mechanism which strikes the hours on a bell. Thomas Aldrige was registered as an apprentice in 1753 and is recorded as working in Deal up to 1791. The clock movement has been cleaned and serviced and comes with a 12 month guarantee. Height - 19 inches Width - 11 inches Depth - 7 ½ inches Circa - 1780 - 1790
