Description

A large 19th Century portrait of a gentleman wearing a wig and gentry attire. The oil on canvas is set in a large gilt gesso frame, there are some losses to the gesso moldings and the canvas has some damage to the bottom section, there are four small rips and a scuff in the middle of the canvas. To the back of the painting is an old gallery stamp "Chinel by the town hall Chelsea". This painting is completely untouched and needs restoration and a good clean but a very nice portrait indeed.
