Description

A magnificent pair of antique William IV mahogany chairs dating from circa 1835. A good quality, pair of chairs with attractively carved bar backs and top rails, standing on sabre legs. They have drop in seats which have been recently recovered in a welsh blanket type fabric. Construction/Wood: Mahogany Condition Report: Good colour and patina. Fairly solid and sturdy (some slight movement to front legs but not wobbly). Wear and marks commensurate with age. Newly recovered – over existing upholstery which is quite firm. Dimensions: Width: 46cm Depth: 53cm Height to seat: 49cm Height: 85cm
