Description

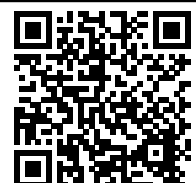

A remarkable and very rare 18th century handmade SILK PURSE or WALLET. This gorgeous and genuine object of social history is still in extraordinary condition, given its age and would have been the personal possession of a lady or gentleman, and used for for money or valuables with various internal pockets edged in silver braid. Stitched in pink silk, it is embellished with its superb ornate gold clasp, which is engraved with the owners initials and the date: 1778. Fine, rare and possibly of interest to a museum of costume.

Internal Ref: 1820
