Description

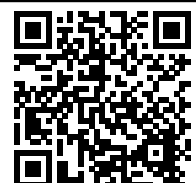

An attractive Regency period solid rosewood CANTERBURY or MAGAZINE RACK of particularly good quality and in very fine original condition. Constructed of solid rosewood which has now acquired a lovely warm colour, the three divisions are decorated with carved laurels, with four stylised acorn finials to each corner. To the frieze is a mahogany-lined drawer with further carving to its front, whilst it is supported on turned legs with good cast brass castors. Make no mistake, this is a very good example by a talented cabinetmaker, in much better-than-average condition! 20ins (51cms) wide.
