Description

An attractive old English pine table that dates from the turn of the century. It is in lovely order throughout, and has been recently wax polished to a very high standard. There is a drawer at one end with a new wooden knob, however we still have the original (which is a little aged and rustic) if you'd like it. The lovely turned legs have been slightly extended to give you the legroom you'll need. The base has been waxed and the top has been sealed and waxed. The top has rounded edges. In a clean and tidy order, ready for collection or delivery. Overall height 30.5", legroom height 24.5", length 53", width 30.5"
