Description

A very good walnut stool dating from the late Victorian period. Very well constructed in solid walnut in the George I style. With cabriole legs terminating in ball and claw feet and with carved shell motifs to the knees. The frame is strong and sturdy and the walnut has a great colour and patina. The drop-in upholstered seat is in serviceable condition but would benefit from being re-covered. Dimensions: Width 63cms Depth 44cms Height 42cms
