Description

Superbly stylish 1930's Art Deco matching pair of bedside cabinet tables. Rare bleached blonde walnut veneers with a beautifully detailed pattern and grain. You can sense the quality in these cabinets immediately, from the timbers used to the fine detailing of craftsmanship in their construction. Both cabinets are reasonably weighty and in turn are very sturdy and feel robust. Four curvaceous drawers which have a slight serpentine feel are generously sized to house all your needs. Each drawer has it's original metal handle and opens and closes smoothly and without effort. Both cabinets are raised in a darker toned walnut plinth which contrasts wonderfully with the blonde light wood. Condition is very good both cabinets have been professionally restored.
