Description

1920's Walnut nest of tables This walnut nest of tables was made in a top cabinetmakers workshop in the 1920's. Made in fine walnut with burr walnut tops with a good deep cross banding. The top of each of the 4 tables have a fine bead inset around the edge, this was to stop items sliding off if the tables were knocked. These were made in the 'age of elegance' where refinement was very important in the design and style of items made. This nest of tables consists of 4 that reduce in size so that they fit together and then slide into the largest table. Each of the 4 tables have fine double turned supports to each end that are joined by sleigh feet and a curved back rail. The feet with line inlay. Nests of tables are very good for the modern home as they can be stacked together when not being used, but then become 4 occasional tables when you have guests. 47cms wide largest table (18 1/2ins) 30cms deep (12ins) 73cms high (28 1/2ins) All dimensions are approximate We can arrange delivery nationwide or for it to be shipped overseas This item carries the Hingstons Antiques product guarantee plate. This gives you the peace of mind that any item with this on, is of the quality an...
