Description

These are a delightful pair of 14ct drop vintage continental earrings. The work that has gone into these earrings is immaculate and they are in superb condition. These earrings have an open and close clasp, this helps ensure they stay in your ear. They weigh 2.4g. The photos best describe these earrings; there are pictures of both the front and the back of the earrings, and a picture of the clasp. These would make for an ideal gift, or if you are an earring enthusiast then they would add nicely to any collection. These are at a fantastic price!
