Description

Georgian mahogany bureau of country style with inlaid interior features. Some restoration is required particularly to the cock beading on the drawers. Good colour, size & patination as can be seen in the photographs. Great piece once restored or can be used as is with its historical damage which has occurred during its life of regular use in a west county farmhouse. Large potential margin for restorer. Please contact us if you require any further information or pictures. Price assumes collection from our base in Somerset, 3 miles from junction 22 of the M5.
