Description

This is an antique pier mirror, an English Regency, giltwood and gesso, wall mirror dating to the early 19th century circa 1820. Highly desirable natural colour and patina to the giltwood frame. Superb proportions in classical form. Attractive lattice frieze beneath beaded pediment. Later plate with a quality hand bevelled edge. Good reflectivity, displaying very light, desirable foxing. Twin Greco influenced columns with leaf cup mounts. Breakfront base with shaped moulding between terminals. A very nice example that would look splendid over a console table. Solid joints and construction, delivered ready for the home.
