Description

A superb quality early Victorian and finely fitted GENTLEMAN'S DRESSING CASE in excellent condition. The substantial (larger than normal) rosewood box is edged in brass with a substantial engraved crest and motto on the central cartouche. It opens to reveal the beautifully engraved silver-topped bottles, jars and shaving brush with razors, scissors and other tools arranged around. A large compartment below houses the brushes, and in the lid is the original mirror and document/letter pouch. Complete with its working key, the lovely silver is hallmarked for London 1850. 14 x 11 x 6.5ins (35.5x28x16.5cms)

Internal Ref: 1853
