Description

This simply stunning demi lune Georgian Satinwood Card table, with a wealth of cross banding and marquetry decoration is an absolute feast for your eyes. The top is decorated with a marquetry floral border around the edge and centre, along with a shell motif, and tulipwood cross banding. The tapered legs are in turn decorated with a flower motif and harebells down the fronts, a crossbanded decorative band at the base of the legs along with decorative line inlays on their corners. The frieze has contrasting panels surrounded by crossbandings and decoration. Both legs swing out from the rear allowing the top to be opened up to reveal the baized playing area. A piece of exceptional quality for the connoisseur, or indeed for someone that appreciates its decorative attributes. Dimensions Width 36½in/93cm Depth 18½in/47cm Height 29½in/75cm
