Description

This fabulous pair of vases are of powder blue in colour with painted scenes of fruit vignette by H.Ayrton dating to 1923. These as a pair in this powder blue colour signed by the same artist are very rare, and the detail that has been embued into both pieces makes for a very special pair of matching vases. Seemingly Ayrton tried to incorporate as much colour as possible into these vases, the pictures more than any decription will sell these pieces. Having for hour been trying to find a matching or similar pair of vases, as opposed to cups or plates, I've been unable to found anything remotely similar. They are in great condition as the pictures will attest, the gilding on both is ornate and beautifully handed painted, within the gilding not only do you have the gorgeous blue, but colours of light green almost turquoise and pink. This is before you get to the main central art works, the vividness of his scenes even after all these years is splendid. The dimensions of both these vases are 7"high, 3" from gilded handle to handle and 3" deep. I've seen H.Ayrton's work before in this powdered blue form, but only in display plates and cups and saucers, never in two matching ...
