Description

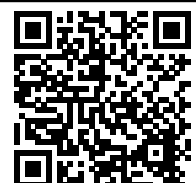

This is an antique side table, a carved Chinese stand in teak and marble, dating to the early 20th century, circa 1900. Quality teak displaying good colour and a desirable aged patina. Profusely carved with a dark, wax, polished finish. Classic oriental styling in good proportion. Useful size for both display or as a sofa companion. Circular top inset with attractive blush marble panel. Pinched above a pierced frieze of carved berries and foliate interest. The cabriole legs carved with foliate and stylised rosette detail. United by a pierced lower tier stretcher and standing upon paw feet. A well executed table of interest. Solid joints and construction, delivered waxed, polished and ready for the home.
