Description

This is a great size original and solid oak Victorian desk with green leather top, Good solid piece and with two full depth drawers, one with a lock and key, the other with its original turned knob. Standing on turned legs, good legroom and the green leather itself is in good condition. There is a gilt tooling to the leather top which has worn on the front side, this is shown in the photos...not something I would worry about to be honest, but could be restored of you would rather. Lovely warm mid oak colour and has wax polished really well.
