Description

A charming Regency scumble grained pine chest of drawers, of two short and three long drawers with ebonised handles and patinated brass key escutcheons, the bottom has a shaped apron to the front and sides and raised on bracket feet. This is a lovely chest in rare to find, good and totally original condition. The handles, key escutcheons and locks are all original and the paintwork is in overall good condition with only a few scrapes.
