Description

This is a very unusual and early c19th French oak dressing table with a lift top mirror and further storage, with more drawer space below. The mirror has a slide hinge, so when using it you can lift it from the front edge and pull it towards you for the perfect position. Either side are two further hinged openings for larger item storage. Below are three drawers, so all in, this dressing table gives quite a lot of storage space. Great decorative piece and would sit alongside English oak furniture, as well as lighter French walnut etc as the oak has a lovely warm tone to it. Good condition, good quality and a rare find. The drawers are opened by using the keys as drawer pulls, but the locks are not functioning. Hopefully the photos will speak for themselves, but please do get in touch for more info / photos of this great piece!
