Description

A Victorian Staffordshire porcelain 16 piece dessert service, circa 1860, possibly Coalport, hand painted with a central posy of summer flowers within green and gilt scroll borders. Comprising: A pair of twin handled oval serving dishes raised on an oval foot, 29cm x 18cm A pair of twin handled circular serving dishes raised on a circular foot, 24cm x 22cm and twelve plates, 22cm diam. The service does not bear any makers marks but is typical of the production of Coalport of this period. All in perfect condition, no chips, cracks, staining or repairs. There is a very slight amount of wear to the gilt on the bottom of one of the circular dishes
