Description

Published c. 1850 by Louis Van Houtte in 'Flore des serres et des jardins de l'Europe', these multi-mount botanical lithographs in original colour are highly desirable, superbly decorative and considered very collectable. They are in fine condition and attractively mounted and framed. Louis Van Houtte was the founder, publisher and part-editor of the "Flore des serres et des jardins de l'Europe". He was also the proprietor of the largest nursery of its time on the continent. The periodical appeared monthly for almost 40 years and was published by his own printing office in the middle of his gardens, the Horto van Houtteano. The work is notable for the craftsmanship of the Belgian lithographers Severeys, Stroobant and De Pannemaker, who had mastered the art of colour-printing from stone. Sizes: Frame dimensions: 31" x 25.5" (79 x 64.5cm) Individual engravings approx. 9" x 6" (22.5 x 15cm)
