Description

~ French - Circa 1890 ~ ~~ Excellent condition, fully overhauled ~~ A superbly made and very large (30" in height) antique French clock set by the famous Maison Baguès of Paris. Beautifully and substantially modelled and finished and with a lovely original gild. The finely fretted panel of acanthus and a winged cherub to the front is backed with an ebonised panel. twisted columns supported by winged mythical creatures with hairy paws make up the four corners. To the top is a goddess mask and a soaring elaborate finial. Candelabra have eight lights supported by scrolling arms, beautifully detailed with goddess masks. The rear of the set is also finely finished, the clock has a glazed rear door allowing the movement to be seen. The set is complete with it's original suite of ebonised gesso bases. The dial is also ormolu, fretted with an ebonised back, 12 individual enamel cartouches and blued steel hands. The French movement is of high quality and is in excellent clean and running condition having been fully overhauled by our clockmaker. The backplate is stamped with the Baguès movement mark. Pendulum is a original also with the Baguès movement mark. It runs for 8 day...
