Description

A very large & grand antique pine chest of drawers. Made in Scotland around the turn of the century. It is in very good clean condition for its age, having recently been stripped exposing a lovely bare wood. There is a kilt drawer at the very top and a further 5 drawers below (two small drawers and three full width drawers). The chest no longer has the original handles, we do however have some handles that we feel would have been very similar to the original, and will look very nice. Please let us know if you'd like us to fix the handles on, and take a video/picture of the chest of drawers once we've done so. Beautiful decorative carvings to the sides - a stunning piece of furniture. Height 58.5", width 48", depth 22.5"

Internal Ref: A50008D
