Description

Circa 1910-1940 this pair of very well made and heavy brass wall lights have been rewired to UK specifications. They measure 29cm in length from the very top to the very bottom of the finial; 31cm across and each weighs about 2kgs. They are in good condition with no signs of repair or damage, and have only been lightly hand polished. Both lights have a bar across the back for easy attachment to a wall. Postage and packing within the UK mainland only is included in the price, and for remote parts of the UK or abroad, please contact us for a delivery quote.
