Description

An excellent and sought after example of Edwardian gaming ware. This is a rare Bridge gaming box, with silver mounted details. It comes with the original double deck of playing cards, four Bridge scoring cards and pencils. The scoring cards are unused and helpfully have the rules for both Contact and Auction Bridge. The body of the box is in a warm oak and features a shield shaped escutcheon to the front with working lock and key. The lid hinges upwards and the front forwards to allow easy access to the contents. A wonderful example and ready for immediate use. Dimensions below. Postage and Packing contribution :- £12.00 UK £22.00 Worldwide
 Condition :- Very good. The wooden box is in lovely condition with just one small chip to the wood on one side - (Pictured). The contents is in excellent condition with the scoring cards and playing cards unused. The silver mounts have a couple of very light blemishes, commensurate with age and use. Hallmarks :- Clear and readable. Maker :- Levi & Salaman. Date :- London 1903/4. Width :- 20.5 cms. Depth :- 11.5 cms. Height :- 7 cms.
