Description

For your consideration is this very attractive mid 1930's gents watch by the US watch makers Bulova. Mechanical Hand Wind, running well on 21jewels. The case is beautifully styled with a rectangular Deco design, with great detailing to the front and sides. The dial has Deco numerals and a subsidiary second dial. The glass to the front is domed and the strap is chromed and elasticated allowing for an easier more comfortable fit. Case 21 mm width not including crown 37 mm lug to lug . Condition is excellent considering it's age, very little signs of age, the crystal is clear and not scratched. Lovely watch any gentleman would love to wear. The case back is free of any engravings, shows no wear-through to the plating. All of our watches are sent out in a complimentary gift box.
