Description

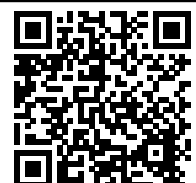

This is a left handed antique chaise longue, an English, Victorian scroll-end day bed on mahogany frame dating to circa 1870. Raised on stout, squat, turned mahogany legs and frame riding upon solid brass castors all round. Appealing sinuous form, displaying good proportion. Well sprung and traditionally stuffed offering a comfortable recline. Historically, professionally upholstered in a Regency style blush and gold cloth. Spindle back with finished rear, ideal for centre room placement. A fine example of Victorian furniture. Solid joints and construction, delivered waxed, polished and ready for the home.
