Description

A fabulous quality marquetry inlaid card table with rosewood and walnut crossbanding with central half fan in boxwood to the top contained within a concertina of concave cross banding headed by trailing wheat husks. The five tapered legs similarly inlaid and terminating in spade feet. The figuring in this satin wood is unsurpassed and in 30 years is the best I have ever seen. This piece has been lovingly and carefully restored in our workshops with a new baize to complement this stunning piece of furniture. C.1895. Excellent condition. Measure 38"w x 18" d x 31"h
