Description

A beautiful cased set of six Victorian silver teaspoons with matching sugar tongs, created by Robert Pringle & Sons in London in 1894. This set is splendidly housed in a handsome tooled leather fitted case with scarlet fittings and lining as shown in the accompanying photograph. This would make an ideal present for Christmas. Each spoon is 11.5 cm in length, with approximate weight 108.0 grams. About the Date of Manufacture: 1894. The silver spoons and sugar tongs are in excellent condition. The interior of the case is in very good condition, and the exterior is showing little wear considering its age. All of the items that we advertise for sale have been as accurately described as possible and are in excellent condition, unless otherwise stated. Please note that we are also able to arrange a full shipping service for our customers. We offer a 14 day returns policy. In the unlikely event that you are not completely satisfied with your purchase we will issue a full refund of the purchase price less the return transport costs with an approved courier once an item is received by us in the same condition as it was originally dispatched. We look forward to ...
