Description

A very large antique pine Dutch Linen Press with lots of lovely original detail. It is currently in the bare wood having recently been stripped of its original paint. Dating from mid to late 19th century, it is in very good condition for its age. Decorative wood panels doors with attractive columns either side, each with the original brass mouldings at the top and bottom. Inside the cupboard are two shallow drawers with little brass knobs and three shelves, one of which is half depth. The original door catch can be seen on the shelf above the drawers. Below the cupboard are two big deep drawers with brass drop handles. This cupboard can be adapted to make a very nice wardrobe for your bedroom. The shelves can be removed and a new brass hanging rail fitted. Please let us know of your requirements. The top section separates from the bottom for delivery. Height 83", width 68", depth 25", internal depth 18"
