Description

JOSEPH SOLDANO: a very fine quality mid/late 19th century French GIANT CARRIAGE CLOCK in perfect working order. The very heavy and substantial case is of "Cannallee" type, with traditional bevelled glass panels to all sides, and canted corners to the sides and stepped base. The 8-day movement with its huge original silvered platform lever escapement, strikes hours and half-hours on a gong, repeating hours at will. Retailed by Payne & Co of New Bond St., London, and signed to the dial and engraved as such to the backplate. The platform signed "SOLDANO". 9ins high, handle up.  Genuine "Giant" carriage clocks are rare, with movements; wheels and cases all much larger than usual.

Internal Ref: 1891
