Description

This unusual and rare ANTIQUE SILVER BOWL is of hexafoil form around a circular concave base and is supported by three superbly crafted zoomorphic scroll legs. Each segment of the bowl has a superbly embossed panel decorated with fruit and flowers. The lower segment of the dish is beautifully decorated with a chased foliate design around a plain central hub. The bowl was made by the well-known and sought after silversmiths of Mappin & Webb in 1897 and is in excellent condition and is free from any added engravings, monograms or initials. A very unusual and rare antique which would look superb in any setting and would certainly enhance any silver collection. Condition: Used / Excellent There is no damage and no repairs. Two of the legs are slightly bent at the base and no longer support the dish.
