Description

A very stylish example of another Art Deco Classic is this 1930's Art Deco bakelite lamp. A stunning butterscotch phenolic bakelite coloured stem sits atop an all chrome circular stepped base with another catalin bakelite accent, with a chrome bayonet fitting and gallery. All finished off with a wonderfully shaped satin cream and silver glass shade. Fully working, a real "must have" piece of lighting. Stands a whopping 48 cm tall! Condition is way above average, the catalin isn't cracked or discoloured and the chrome is also very good with just mild signs of age, no tarnishing.
