Description

An exceptional, handsome gentleman's Wing Armchair. This is a very roomy chair, a fine example of a traditional Country House leather wing armchair, this large specimen has its original leather upholstery with the great character and softness that can only be achieved with use and time. The chair has a high wing back with curved arm rests and it is set on sturdy carved mahogany cabriole legs. The chair is strong and sturdy, there are no tears or holes in the well-used soft leather. The back of the chair is 45" high from the ground, it is 32" wide across the front and 36" back to front. A really comfortable, large, handsome chair that would look great in any stylish home.
