Description

This hugely stylish 1930's cocktail cabinet hospitality cabinet, a great piece of Art Deco furniture, and its internal features prove to be an incredibly appealing feature. Contrasting veneers of blonde bird's-eye Maple and burr walnut with ebonized areas which accentuate the whole shape give a terrific presence of this piece. The front top handles pulls down and activates the top which raises into an upright position, and the two are connected to one another by chrome brackets. This reveals a mirror back and a white maple veneer fretted out circles for storing glasses. The pulled down door also acts as a server area and is protected by black vitrolite glass, with another fretted out area for more glasses. Underneath this are two generous size drawers which can house all your cocktail needs, from cutlery, napkins etc. All of the fittings remain properly secured within the cabinet when the fall is opened and shut, and its reverse side is mirrored to stop any spillage from harming the lining. The original lemon squeezer holder and cocktail sticks are still in place. All the handles are chromed and original to the cabinet. The lower storage area is very spacious and is for...
