Description

This is an antique piano stool in walnut. An adjustable, English, Victorian music seat dating to circa 1860. Beautifully made in solid walnut with a waxed finish and desirable aged patina. Raised on a tripod of sturdy cabriole legs. Inverted, turned finial beneath bulbous 'squash' baluster column. Solid brass collar mounting threaded adjustable riser. Traditionally stuffed, professionally upholstered in a claret cloth. Some minor marks consistent with careful use. Matching brocade trim finishing just above the walnut lip. An attractive example with solid joints and construction, delivered waxed, polished and ready for the home.
