Description

A lovely leather covered Jewellery box, dating from the late 19th Century. The outer of the box is covered in leather with an inset metal handle on the top and a brass key escutcheon on the front of the box. Inside, the box is fully lined with plush green velvet and has two fitted lift out trays with various sections for rings, bracelets etc and a large section below the trays for storing larger pieces. The lock is stamped 'Bramah', a top maker of the time, however we do not have a key. The box is in good condition for its age. It has been well used but well looked after and has retained its natural aged look. The outer has some small age related knocks and scuffs and there are a few small areas of leather missing (see photos) but nothing detrimental. Inside it is generally clean and tidy and overall it displays very well and is certainly a nice usable item. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions please ask. Nationwide UK delivery £10.
