Description

A superb antique mirrored glass 'witches ball'. It is a good large size with a diameter of approximately 10" (26cm). It dates from the 19th century and is hand blown with its original metal top. The blue glass is a wonderful rich colour with lovely signs of age and wear on the glass. It is in excellent condition with no damages and displays beautifully. I have matching green, blue and gold balls available. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions please ask. Nationwide UK delivery £10.
