Description

A lovely Victorian mahogany chest of drawers dating from the mid to late 19th Century. Excellent quality and a larger than normal size with four small drawers at the top, rather than two. The drawers all open well and it a clean sturdy set with a wonderful rich patina and stunning grain on the drawer fronts. It has all the original turned knobs and is set on turned bun feet. It is in good condition for its age and displays beautifully. The drawers have their original blue 'penny paper' lining and are generally clean and tidy with a few small old stains but nothing detrimental. There are the usual small signs of wear and age, a few marks and stains on the top and a small old split but nothing detrimental or untoward. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions please ask.
