Description

A Georgian mahogany English bracket/table clock. Choice veneers with ebonised mouldings. A cast brass bezel to the convex dial with blued steel 'moon' hands. Side handles and well cast side sound fretwork panels. Brass edged recessed front panels and surmounted by a pineapple finial. Brass bun adjustable feet. A well engraved backplate and pendulum to the double fusee mechanism of 8-day duration striking the hours on a bell. Signed 'Jno Gale, London' to the dial and a lovely old label inside the case base showing the maker's dates at Red Lion Square in Spitafields, London. John Gale of London is recorded in Baillies' 'Watchmakers and Clockmakers of The World' book as working from 1790 to 1840. This example dates to circa 1825. From Kembery Antique Clocks Ltd. you can expect a genuine antique clock that is in full working order and sold with 12 months guarantee. Please contact us for further delivery information.
