Description

These are 1930s wooden hat blocks with a great sheen - originally used for making hats but now used for displaying hats. We have a range of these available in various conditions, and they'd be beautiful for homes, galleries, museums, and shops. Price is individual. We're also able to hire out our display stands as well as sell, so if you need any of our items in the short term, feel free to contact us about our hire agreements.
